Enclosure to Sda 53-12 (2

Letter No. 228, dated the 12th July 1912, from the Collector of North Arcot, to the Hon'ble the British Resident in Mysore.

In forwarding the accompanying petition (with the record of inquiry) from Habibunnisa Begum, a daughter of the deceased Mysore pensioner Azizunnisa Begum, I have the honour to state that inquiry shows that the latter died on the 11th August 1911. She has left a son Ahmed Husain and two daughters -- Azimunnisa Begum and Habibunnisa Begum. Ahmed Husain and a son of Azizunnisa Begum are employed in His Highness the -- Nizam's service, the former as a Tahsildar. Azimunnisa Begum lives with her son. Neither of them appears anxious to apply for his or her share in their mother's pension. But they have not specifically abandoned their claim so far as this office is aware.

2. The petitioner Habibunnisa Begum appears to be in very straitened circumstances being burdened with a large family of six sons and three daughters with no adequate means for their support.

To,

The Collector and Political Officer,

North Arcot Dt:

Vellore

The humble petition of Habibunnisa Begum wife of M. Abdul Aziz Sahib, Hazarath Makhan, Vellore.

Most Respectfully Showeth,

1. That the late Gulam Ali Sahib Kurishi (Petitioner's maternal grand-father) was a Mysore pensioner on a pension of Rs. 60--6--0 per mensem that he was a direct lineal deseendant of Gulam Ali Mir Sudur on an annual Government pension of 3,000 pagodas, and that after his (Gulam Ali Sahib Kurishi's) death, his pension descended to his wife , sons and daughters as shown below:-

First Wife's Children.

1. Gulam Rasool Sahib Kurishi (deceased) (His pension given to his wife Tayebah Hyderabad.)
2. Syedunnisa Begum (deceased). (Her pension given to her daughter Majon Bee Vellore.)
3. Mahboob Begum (Deceased) (Her pension given to her daughter Noor Jan Begum Hyderabad)
4. Fatima Begum (alive)
5. Patoola Begum (alive)
6. Azizunnisa Begum (Died On 11-8-11)

Second wife's Children.

7. Abdul Ali Sahib (alive)
8. Sherfuddin Sahib (-Do-)
9. Abdul Gafur Sahib (alive)
10. Kurushudunnisa Begum (alive)
11. Rahmathunnisa Begum (alive.)

2. That No. 6 in the above Viz., Azizunnisa Begum the petitioner's mother) who was in receipt of a pension of Rs. 3--8--4 per mensem died on 11--8--11 at Hyderabad leaving behind an only son and two daughters of whom the petitioner is one as shown below:-

1. Ahmed Hussain Sahib, Thasildar of Pathari, Purbhani District, Nizam's Dominions.
2. Azimunnisa Begum (Widow) Care of Kudrut Gani Sahib, Employed in the Revenue Department, Purbhani District.

Habibunnisa Begum (Petitioner)

That of the three members referred to above the first is a Tahsildar and Munsubdar in Hyderabad Dominions, the second is a widow under the protection of her son employed in the Revenue Department there (her two daughters having been married) and the third is the petitioner with a large family of 6 sons and 3 daughters all of whom are of tender age save one, Muhammad Zainulabuddin Sahib, who is now employed in the Medical Department in Mysore Province.

4. That the late Azizunnissa Begum (Petitioner's mother lived during her life time at at Vellore with the petitioner drawing her pension there and was a prop to her family, that after her death at Hyderabad whither she had gone only a month previously, she (the petitioner) lost even the small support which she derived from her mother and is now in a most helpless condition as her husband is unemployed and all her children ~~xxx~~ except one are still young and attending school; and that it will therefore be a boon to give her a helping hand to educate these children.

3 MAI 1912

5. That the Petitioner therefore requests that a recommendation be made to the effect that the pension of her mother, the late Azizunnisa Begum may be granted to her in the same way to which the pension of her maternal uncle (Vide No. 2 Para 1) was granted to his wife after his death, and that of her maternal aunts (Vide Nos. 3 and 4 ~~y~~ in para 1) was granted to their daughters after their death.

6. That for this act of kindness and charity the petitioner shall, as in duty bound, ever
